★★★★★, No. 3 BEST BUY

Cuisine Magazine

Biscuity aromas open up to reveal vibrant and juicy lemon-lime fruit. The palate is very well integrated with lightly roasted nut flavours and a fine, flinty finish. A terrific aperitif style.

★★★★☆, 90/100

Sam Kim, Wine Orbit

It is bright and inviting on the nose showing ripe stone fruit, rockmelon, apple and lemon peel characters. The palate is juicy and vibrant, delivering lovely fruit intensity backed by fine texture and refreshing acidity, finishing smooth and lingering. A crowd-pleasingly tasty sparkling wine with lovely succulent flavours.

Raymond Chan Wine Reviews

Dry to taste and medium-bodied, the palate is taut and tightly bound, quite elegant in expression, with a well-packed, somewhat unyielding core of stonefruits layered with bread and yeast. This is a youthfully taut sparkling wine with stonefruit and bread-yeast elements on a textured line.
