Made from two classic grapes, chardonnay and pinot noir, this charming sparkling wine shows white flesh stone fruit, apple, rockmelon and lemon peel characters on the nose with a delightful yeasty complexity. The palate is beautifully weighted and creamy, backed by fine texture and bright acidity, leading to a persistent refined finish. Fabulous drinking.

The Hāhā Brut Cuvée is crafted from a blend of chardonnay and pinot noir and has sultry, cashew and lemon layers, biscuity complexity and a soft, pillowy finish. The fact that it also tastes great when sipped with sneaky spoonfuls of caramelised onions as they simmer is an added bonus.

This elegant sparkling was blended from Marlborough chardonnay and Hawke's Bay pinot noir, with some components lees-aged for up to five years. Fragrant, it is appetisingly crisp and dry, with a steady 'bead' and strong, fresh, citrusy, appley flavours, yeasty, lively and lingering.
