★★★★☆, 91/100

Sam Kim, Wine Orbit

It is immediately appealing on the nose showing fresh pear, mango, fig and floral characters with a touch of spicy complexity. The palate is succulent and beautifully rounded, offering delightful fruit intensity and smooth texture, finishing long and juicy.

★★★★, 17.0+/20

Raymond Chan

The nose is fresh with full aromas of white stone fruit, acacia florals and nuances of honeysuckle with mineral suggestions. Off-dry to taste and medium-bodied, the palate has elegantly concentrated and up-front white stone fruit, white floral and honeyed flavours. This has good aromatic presence, and the wine flows with good vibrancy and energy along a fine-featured line, leading to a light, gently sweet finish. This is a moderately rich, up-front medium-dry Pinot Gris on a refreshing and lively palate. Serve as an aperitif and with Asian fare over the next 3 years.
