Sam Kim, Wine Orbit

It is immediately appealing on the nose showing dark plum, sweet raspberry, floral, olive and toasted almond characters. The palate delivers bright fruit intensity and rounded mouthfeel, beautifully complemented by fleshy texture and silky tannins. Youthfully charming and delightfully expressed, making it fabulous drinkable.

Bob Campbell MW, The Real Review

Medium-bodied Syrah with ripe plum and dark berry flavours, together with a suggestion of floral, black pepper, spice and anise. A richly-textured wine that's ready to drink and offers good value at this price.

Vibrant colours of dark ruby and purple with a crimson edge lead to aromas of ripe, fresh, plush and varietal bouquet of Syrah. There's no mistaking the wild and fresh raspberry, peppery tones, dark roses and clove scented oak. On the palate – plush and fruity, varietal, peppery, tense and dry. A lovely example with ripe, firm-ish tannins, plenty of acidity and a core of varietal fruit flavours. Nice moderate length finish, balanced and well made.
