

2019 Hawke's Bay Merlot

A vibrant Merlot with dark plum, blueberry, toasted almond and spice notes. Delicious paired with a rich tomato based pasta or any chocolate based dessert.

Colour:

Deep, rich purple.

Aroma:

Dark plum, blueberry, violets and a hint of spice.

Palate:

Juicy and rich, this wine delivers juicy fruit flavours along with a supple mouthfeel, finishing smooth and lingering.

Winemaking & Viticulture:

Grown in the elevated terraces along the Ngaruroro river in Hawke's Bay, New Zealand. A fantastic growing season with warm and dry summer ensured that the grapes had stunning flavour development and were harvested at peak ripeness.

Made with 100% Merlot grapes, the wine was fermented in a mixture of oak barrels and stainless steel tanks and 50% aged in French oak barrels for 10 months.
