

Hāhā Rōhi

Hawke's Bay Sparkling Rosé

Release the brilliance of a sun-kissed Hawke's Bay summer as you sip our luscious Hāhā Rōhi. Beautifully delicate, it blooms with ripe raspberry and strawberry flavours, seductively married with irresistible hints of spice and lifted florals. Fresh and crisp on the palate perfectly rounded by the delicacy of fine bubbles, this wine is sure to delight the senses. Make any day you open Rōhi, a day to celebrate. Ooh-la-la!

Colour:

Vibrant watermelon pink.

Aroma:

Beautiful aromas of raspberry and strawberry with delicate floral notes.

Palate:

A lovely balance of fruit richness and vibrancy. The retained effervescence gives the palate lift and a delicious freshness.

Winemaking & Viticulture:

Harvested from vines in the Bridge Pa and Havelock Hills sub regions in Hawke's Bay, this is a fun take on our award winning rosé. The grapes were processed with minimal time on skins to produce the beautiful colour of this sparkling rosé.

Bottled with retained effervescence and a touch of residual sugar, this wine is sure to be a favourite that can be enjoyed all year round. Fresh and lively with a convenient screw cap closure.

Wine Analysis:

Alcohol 12.5 % v/v

Residual sugar 8 g/L

Acidity 5.4 g/L

pH 3.41

Food Match:

A perfect pairing to a picnic lunch with friends and sure to make any day a day worth celebrating. Serve chilled.
